Kids Need School Supplies After Hurricane Harvey

The severe flooding from Hurricane Harvey devastated Houston public schools just before classes started for the year. Trial Lawyers Care and the Houston Independent School District are working together to replace school supplies for more than 200,000 students, nearly 75% who are financially disadvantaged. Just click on the link below for a school supply "Wish List" and purchase supplies for direct shipment to Houston. There they will be handed off to needy students by the Houston Federation of Teachers. Choose Becky Lanier's shipping address when you order, but hurry: the list closes 9/24.
