

Memorial Sloan-Kettering
Cancer Center

Dear Paul,

Thank you for joining the battle against rare cancers. We are truly grateful for your contribution to Cycle for Survival.

In the past five years, gifts like yours have helped fund twenty-five new clinical trials and research studies at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. And funds raised in 2012 are at work in twenty-eight different labs and clinics targeting pediatric tumors, carcinoma, lymphoma, sarcoma, metastatic melanoma, ovarian and brain cancers, and many more.

Your thoughtful contribution is crucial to Cycle's success in the fight against rare cancers. On behalf of the entire Memorial Sloan-Kettering community, I extend heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely,

Richard Naum
Vice-President, Development
Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center
