2016 Justice Served Awards: Reader Survey

Heroes Step Up to Protect the Safety, Rights of All Americans

Tina Meier fights cyberbullying in memory of daughter Megan (center).

Motivated by a passion to help others, our nominees for the 2016 Justice Served Awards have stepped up to make America a safer, more just nation:

- Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha, a young pediatrician, put the welfare of children ahead of politics in Flint, Mich.
- U.S. Senator Al Franken advocates for every American's right to a day in court as a leader in the fight against forced arbitration.
- Daniel Carder and his research team at West Virginia University proved to the world that Volkswagen lied to customers while causing irreparable ecological damage.
- Tina Meier travels the country to fight cyberbullying after her daughter Megan committed suicide.
